

Directions: Change the verb in each sentence to a) simple past tense and b) future tense. For example:

Susan is having an x-ray now. Susan had an x-ray last week. Susan will have an x-ray in 6 months.

	Susan is having an x-ray now. Susan _____ an x-ray last week. Susan _____ an x-ray in 6 months.
	Carmen is making an appointment now. Carmen _____ an appointment yesterday. Carmen _____ an appointment in 2 days.
	Jorge is seeing a specialist now. Jorge _____ a specialist this morning. Jorge _____ a specialist next week.
	Tina is having an operation now. Tina _____ an operation last month. Tina _____ an operation in 2 months.
	Franco is getting a prescription now. Franco _____ a prescription 4 days ago. Franco _____ a prescription tomorrow.
	Bob is having a blood test now. Bob _____ a blood test last year. Bob _____ a blood test next year.