

Julie Asks About a Warning Label

Directions: Listen to the dialogues. Then practice the dialogues with a partner.

Julie just got a prescription filled at the pharmacy. She reads the label.

Dialogue A

Julie: Excuse me. I don't understand this warning label.

Pharmacist: It means you should not take aspirin when you are taking this medication.

Julie: I understand. No aspirin. Thank you.

Pharmacist: You're welcome.

Dialogue B

Julie: Excuse me. I don't understand this warning label.

Pharmacist: It means that you should not drink alcohol while you are taking this medicine.

Julie: I understand. No alcohol. Thanks.

Pharmacist: You're welcome.

Dialogue C

Julie: Excuse me. What does this mean, "Take on empty stomach"?

Pharmacist: It means you should take this medicine between meals. Take it two hours after you eat, or at least one hour before you eat.

Julie: I understand. I take it when there is no food in my stomach. Thank you.

Pharmacist: You're welcome.
